

Justice... Professionalism... Service... since 1886

UNDERSTANDING CHILD SUPPORT PART 1: OVERVIEW OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS

Advising Neighborhood Legal Clinic Clients

1.75 Law & Legal CLE credit: 1005140

Friday, March 25, 2016, 12:00 PM to 1:45 PM
Davis Wright Tremaine, 1201 3rd Avenue Suite 2200
Seattle, WA 98101

11:45 – 12:00 PM

Registration

12:00 – 1:30 PM

Understanding Child Support. This training will be an overview of the child support process, including differences between setting child support through the administrative process versus the court process, overview for establishing an Administrative Order, and Modification and Enforcement Issues with an Administrative Order

1:30-1:45 PM

Questions and Answer Session

1:45 PM

Evaluations and Adjourn

Biography:

David Mace, Open Door Legal Services

Since 2007 David Mace has been the Managing attorney at Open Door Legal Services, a ministry of Seattle's Union Gospel Mission that serves the legal needs of homeless individuals in the Seattle/King County area. Prior to his work at the Mission, David was a prosecutor in the Family Support unit of the Snohomish County Prosecutor's office, working primarily on child support issues. He began his career as a criminal prosecutor in King County. David is a graduate of Georgetown University Law Center.

This CLE is FREE to volunteers of KCBA pro bono programs.

Attendance is in person or call-in option available. Registration is required. Register by email for either in person or call-in attendance: PaigeH@kcba.org.