Biography:

Brady Johnson, Esquire

Brady Johnson worked for the Washington State Attorney General's office with their antitrust division for 14 years. His commitment to public services is further highlighted by his longtime volunteerism with the King County Bar Association's Pro Bono Services. He was previously the attorney coordinator at the Lake City Neighborhood Legal Clinic from 2003 until September 2015. He has trained numerous new volunteers on how to be thoughtful about barriers clients face. Additionally, he has taken several vacating criminal records cases with Volunteer Legal Services.

This CLE is FREE to volunteers of KCBA pro bono programs

Please note this is a repeat CLE of our Vacating Records training on Friday February 26. If you attended in-person for that training, you cannot receive CLE credit again.

Registration is required.

Attendance is in person or via streaming video. Please register by email to Catherine Sutton, Volunteer Legal Services Intern, at catherines@kcba.org
