

Justice... Professionalism... Service... since 1886

Volunteer Legal Services presents

MAKE CHANGE! DEBT EDUCATION WORKSHOP
Preparing Attorneys to Teach the Make Change! Workshop

2.50 Law and Legal CLE credits approved: #1004825

Friday, April 15, 2016, 2:00 PM to 4:30 PM
Davis Wright Tremaine, 1201 3rd Avenue, Suite 2200
Seattle, WA 98101

---

1:45 – 2:00 PM

Registration

2:00 – 3:00 PM

Debt Defense. The first hour of this training will focus on identifying the legal issues and barriers surrounding debt for low-income communities. Topics covered will include: responding to lawsuits, rights as a consumer, and garnishment.

3:00-4:00 PM

Bankruptcy. The second hour of this training will focus on the basics of Chapter 13 and Chapter 7 bankruptcies, as it relates to low-income debtors.

4:00-4:30 PM

Questions & Answer Session

4:30 PM

Adjourn

Biography:

Zeshan Khan, Law Office of Zeshan Q. Khan, PLLC

Zeshan Q. Khan grew up touring the East Coast, from New York to North Carolina to Florida to Georgia. He attended college at the University of Florida. Zeshan relocated to Chicago for law school, graduating from the Chicago-Kent College of Law. He then went on to receive his Masters in Law in Sustaining International Development at the University of Washington, School of Law.

Zeshan is a member of both the Illinois and Washington State Bars, and is a member of the Family Law and Bankruptcy Law sections through the Washington State Bar. He had the opportunity to clerk for the Honorable Sen K. Tan in Alaska before moving back to Seattle to establish his practice. His current practice emphasizes bankruptcy, family law, and general litigation, including personal injury, small business, and real estate litigation.

This CLE is FREE to volunteers of KCBA pro bono programs

Attendance is in person, call-in options are available. Registration is required.
To register, please e-mail Paige Hardy at PaigeH@kcba.org