

King County Bar Association's Housing Justice Project
Presents

Mock Stay & Vacate Hearing

Jacob Wicks, Housing Justice Project, Presenter

1.25 CLE Credits, Law & Legal

Approval # 1019054

What is a "stay and vacate"
When to do a stay and vacate Grounds for a stay and vacate Review the forms
How to prepare your client Preparing for court Pre-hearing call
Mock argument for motion to stay the writ Mock argument for motion to vacate a judgement
Questions & Discussions
Evaluations & Adjourn

Presenter – Jacob Wicks

Jacob Wicks is a Staff Attorney at the King County Bar Association's Housing Justice Project.

Jacob grew up in the Seattle area and attended Willamette University in Oregon where he studied Art. Jacob then went to the University of Iowa College of Law where he graduated with distinction. While in law school Jacob worked at the University of Iowa College of Law In-house Law Clinic and spent one summer working for Legal Aid Services of Oregon, Lincoln County office. Jacob returned to the Seattle area after graduating, where in addition to his public interest work, Jacob has engaged in general practice work for attorneys and other clients.