Biography

Mark Chattin

Mark is the Director of Legal Services for the Legal Action Center of Catholic Community Services in Seattle. His primary role is to manage the Legal Action Center providing legal services to low income tenants threatened with the loss of housing. Prior to coming to Seattle, Mark worked in legal services in Alabama for 6 years and spent 1 year as a staff attorney for Federal Magistrate Judge Coody in Montgomery, Alabama. Mark has taught as an adjunct professor at Seattle University School of Law for 10 years, teaching Landlord Tenant law. He holds a B.S. from University of Texas, and a J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law but could care less about college football.
