

Immigration Overview for VLPs

Presented by:

Kayley Bebber, Children and Youth Advocacy Program Staff Attorney,
Northwest Immigrant Rights Project

1.25 Law and Legal Procedure CLE
Credits

Approval # 107 9087

Monday, August 27, 2018, 12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

This CLE is FREE to all staff, board members, and volunteers with VLPs.

Registration is required.

Attend in person or via live video stream.

In-Person Location

KBCA, 1200 5th Ave., Suite 700 Seattle, WA

Please RSVP for streaming instructions

Please RSVP to Catherine Brown at catherineb@kcba.org.
Please indicate if you will attend in-person or via live stream.
If you are an attorney, please include your WSBA bar number.

AGENDA

12:00 – 12:05 pm	Welcome & Introductions
12:05 – 12:45 pm	Immigration 101 and Overview – Kayley Bebber will provide an introduction to immigration law, including different types of immigration status, removal proceedings and immigration detention, and paths to lawful permanent resident status and citizenship. Specific forms of immigration relief that will be covered include family visas, asylum, VAWA self-petitions, U visas, T visas, and Special Immigrant Juvenile Status.
12:45 – 1:15 PM	Immigration Update – Kayley Bebber will discuss recent immigration developments at the federal, state, and local levels and provide an overview of immigrants' rights and available resources.
1:15 – 1:30 PM	Questions, Discussion, & Evaluations

Presenter Biography

KAYLEY BEBBER is a staff attorney for NWIRP's Children and Youth Advocacy Program (CYAP), providing immigration-related legal assistance to children and youth, in cases primarily involving Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS), asylum, and removal defense. Prior to coming to NWIRP, Kayley was a staff attorney on Disability Rights Washington's Amplifying Voices of Inmates with Disabilities (AVID) Jail Project. She earned her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and a B.A. from Cornell University.