Biographies

Philip Buri

Philip Buri founded Buri Funston Mumford & Furlong, PLLC, in Bellingham, Washington. He practices appellate and civil litigation, land use, and advises homeowner and community associations. He has been lead counsel in over 150 appeals in the three divisions of the Court of Appeals, the Washington

Supreme Court, and the Ninth Circuit. He also serves as a pro tem judge in the Lummi Nation tribal courts.

Philip is a founding member and past President of the Washington Appellate Lawyers Association. He completed a three-year term as Governor for the Second Congressional District on the Washington State Bar Association Board of Governors and was elected Treasurer of the Bar for 2013.

Philip graduated from Princeton University (1983) and Harvard Law School (1987), and was a law clerk to United States District Court Judge Barbara Rothstein (1987-89) and Washington Supreme Court Justice Richard P. Guy (1993-95). From 1989 to 1993, Philip was a trial attorney with the Antitrust Division, United States Department of Justice.

Outside the Courtroom, Philip spends considerable time skiing with his children, Abraham, Elena, and Isabel. Sometimes they wait for him.
