Biographies

COMMISSIONER MARK J. HILLMAN was appointed to the King County Superior Court bench as a statutory commissioner in 2007. He is a co-recipient of the Washington Women Lawyers 2011 Betty B. Fletcher Judge of the year award. Commissioner Hillman has served as the Lead Family Law Commissioner and has presided over all of Family Law Calendars that are docketed in King County at some point in his tenure. He was sworn in as a Constitutional Commissioner in July 2018 and currently presides in the Ex Parte department at the MRJC.

Prior to his appointment, he was in private practice for over 21 years, and his practice was almost exclusively in the area of family law. Commissioner Hillman is a past president of the South King County Bar Association and past trustee for the King County Bar Association. Commissioner Hillman has presented at numerous CLE events, statewide, nationally, and internationally. He has served on the faculty of the Washington State Judicial College for six years.
