Biographies

KAITLIN HEINEN is a Staff Attorney for the Housing Justice Project. After graduating from Boston University School of Law in 2017, she regularly volunteered for HJP. Realizing she wanted to continue doing client-centric and socially impactful work, Kaitlin jumped at the opportunity to join the team in 2019--a team that prioritizes people over profits, that is mission-driven, and that is challenging in nature. She now defends low-income tenants facing eviction in King County.

JAMES SATTERBERG is a Staff Attorney at the Housing Justice Project for King County Bar Association. Prior to becoming a full-time staff attorney, he spent time at Housing Justice Project as both a volunteer and a part-time attorney. James Satterberg is an alumnus of the University of Washington School of Law and grew up in King County.
